CHEAP COAL.

There was no change in the coal war yesterday, $4.25 delivered being the lowest price quoted by the Consumers' Coal company, or the combine dealers Indications point to a still lower reduction, although rumors of a compromise were current yesterday afternoon.

The prices quoted yesterday for the best grades of lump coal are somewhat in the neighborhood of reasonable and about what they should be, although a few points lower would not be considered too low for all parties considered The prices quoted yesterday for the doors.

sidered too low for all parties concerned.

Many people have been giving the coal question careful consideration and it is confidently asserted that with the cooperation of the railronds, mine owners and dealers that the present price of coal could be materially reduced and yet have a handsome profit for all who have anything to do with the handling of this necessity.

It is hinted that the introduction of natural gas in Salt Lake city is having a salutory effect on the mine owners.

natural gas in Salt Lake city is having a salutory effect on the mine owners of Utah, because they see the handwriting on the wall, which says that if gas proves a success the natural result will be its general use for heating and cooking purposes in the capital because it can be supplied at a figure that will be so much cheaper than coal that no one who can possibly obtain gas will use anything else. Such a state of affairs in the capital would mean the carly introduction of gas into this city, as it can be obtained in large quantities on the lake shore within less than a doz-n miles from the city limits. The day is approaching when the people generally will refuse to suomit to combines and trusts when their object is to compel the purchase of the necessaries of life at unreasonable prices.
